DREXEL UNIVERSITY

CSFP CITIZEN OF THE YEAR - ACCEPTED BY PRESIDENT JOHN A. FRY

Drexel is a comprehensive global research university ranked among the top 100 in the nation. Founded in 1891 in Philadelphia, Drexel now engages with students and communities around the world. Under President Fry's leadership, Drexel has committed to being the nation's most civically engaged university, with community partnerships integrated into every aspect of service and academics. The University supports engagement along three dimensions: research and academic programs that directly benefit communities, public service by students and faculty, and business practices that support local and regional economic development.

SUSQUEHANNA INTERNATIONAL GROUP

CSFP CORPORATE CITIZEN OF THE YEAR - ACCEPTED BY MANAGING DIRECTOR JEFFREY YASS

The owners of Susquehanna International Group, LLP believe that ensuring every child has access to a safe, quality school is the civil rights issue of this generation. They have supported both the Education Improvement Tax Credit and the Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit programs for many years. They support programs that give parents the ability to send their children to a safe, quality district, public charter, private or parochial school of their choice, because no child should be deprived of a quality education due to their zip code.

CHILDREN'S SCHOLARSHIP FUND PHILADELPHIA

Children's Scholarship Fund Philadelphia (CSFP) is a privately-funded program that provides financial access for students from low-income Philadelphia families to safe, high-quality, tuition-based schools. It is the largest and most diverse provider of scholarship support for grades K-8 in Pennsylvania. Since 1999, CSFP has awarded more than 18,500 scholarships chosen from 145,000 applications.
