GSK Science in the Summer – Registration begins May 14th at noon, space is limited!

- Dates/Time: TBD | TBD
Ages: 2nd – 6th grades
Cost: FREE!
Location: Various locations
Website: <https://www.fi.edu/gsk-science-summer>
Contact: Donna Fahres, Summer Program Coordinator | 215-448-1393 | dfahres@fi.edu
Description: GSK Science in the Summer™ is a fun and free science education program sponsored by GSK and administered by The Franklin Institute, which introduces students entering grades 2-6 to the wonderful and fascinating world of science. Programs are held during the summer in public libraries in Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, and Philadelphia counties. The Science of Space invites children to see the sky above them. Through active, hands-on learning, students explore the sun’s energy, the phases of the moon, human survival in space, and how rockets overcome Earth’s gravity. From here on Earth, we look up and see the sun and moon. From here, we dream of space travel. From here, we achieve liftoff. GSK Science in the Summer™ has been offering exciting science experiences in Philadelphia-area libraries since 1986, and The Franklin Institute has been a proud partner and administrator of the program since 2012.
